Sloan-C Professional Development Package

The College Pass professional development package includes 150 seats in the widely acclaimed Sloan-C online workshop series. Many institutions use the workshops as a cost-effective and convenient way to improve quality in online education while networking with new colleagues. Online workshops are 2–4 weeks long with convenient synchronous and asynchronous delivery.

The College Pass costs $3,495 per institution. Discounts are available for state university systems, community colleges, HBCUs, and other large organizations purchasing more than a single college pass.

“Great to hear what others are doing beyond our own campus/university walls. I like the fact that everyone shares ideas and materials easily without being asked to do so”.

Kathleen Grimes, Arizona State University
